
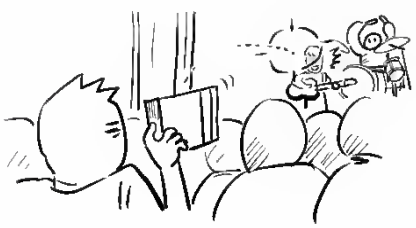
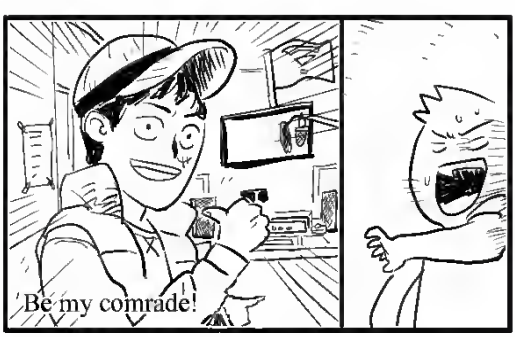
This story began from a cafe which Bum Joon used to manage. (It is music studio now)

I was a fan of Jang Bum-Joon so much, so when I went to his performance, I wanted to throw my book 'The girl from class' at him...(Causing trouble)



After 'Another year with cherry blossoms' was over, I visited his cafe and gave him 'The girl from class' and Bum Joon asked me to work on a project together and we started making 'Fall in love immediately'.



The thing which concerned me most when I was creating 'Fall in love immediately' was two things.

Firstly, 'Love in your twenties' and secondly, 'Music'.

'Love in your twenties' was a subject which Bum Joon wanted to talk about in this album.

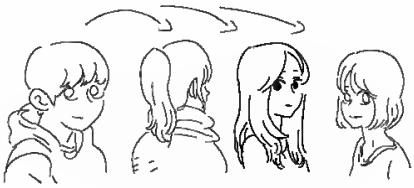
I thought about a lot about 'Love in your twenties' and my conclusion was 'Helplessness'.

You can only remember it after time passes by, then wouldn't it be the biggest emotion to define 'love in your twenties' as helplessness?

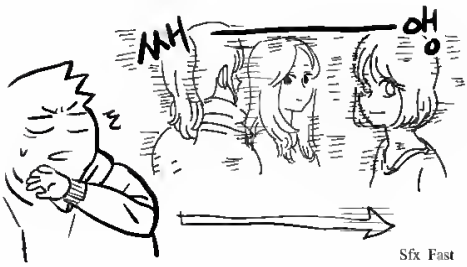
....So I recorded the passing time and I used the factor of 'Diary' and 'Music' as one of the big factors of Falling in love immediately.

When you listen to a music which was important to you, you remember like 'It was like that then...'

And I wanted the main character to search the love in your twenties, so instead of having a single romance, I produced it like he experiences love three times.

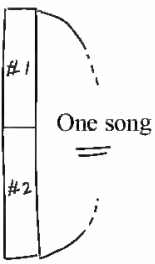


When I was doing that, the emotion didn't stop at one point and it had to flow overall, so the story progressed faster.

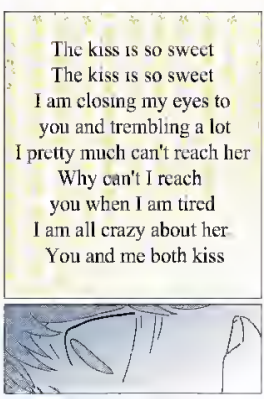


The story of 'Falling in love immediately' used ten songs among Bum Joon's second album, and one song was used for two episodes.

(The song Spring Rain was used twice for Webtoon episode 9 (#17, #18) and the last episode (#20)).



For example about the song Kiss which was on 7th episode of Webtoon (#13, 14)



The kiss is so sweet
The kiss is so sweet
I am closing my eyes to you and trembling a lot
I pretty much can't reach her
Why can't I reach
you when I am tired
I am all crazy about her
You and me both kiss

When I heard about that lyric, I thought about Seung Goo who remembered Yeon Hee's room, whom he used to go out with, after having a first kiss with Somi

On 9th episode of Webtoon, Seung Goo is realizing something about love again, when he hums the melody of Spring rain and it's about his first love. From 'Spring Rain'.

When she walks in front of her house again
And the rain she was w aiting for falls down again
The memory of that day
will spread again

The rain I was waiting for is falling down again

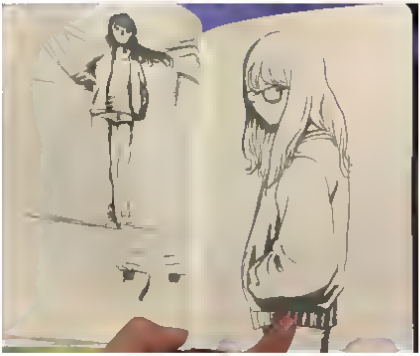
It is from that lyric.

Especially the song 'Spring Rain', is a song which shows overall mood of the story Falling in love immediately, so I chose it as the last song.

It was a new and happy challenge to to connect various melodies and lyrics to my story.

A lot of things happened.

I had to fix the story a lot to make it match the music.
The story which I made when I was thinking about Falling in Love Immediately was about volunteer students at the small island in Tongyeong.



Hwa Jin who is first love of Seung Goo in Falling in Love Immediately, is the main female character in this story (She has a name too) And the character called Seung Goo had a different name, but now Ah Um I forgot it

The story was more like a romance thriller.

There has been many fixes and now the story of 'Falling in love immediately' was made Seung Goo and Somi fell in love finally, and you can see his first love and Yeon Hwi all in love under an umbrella.

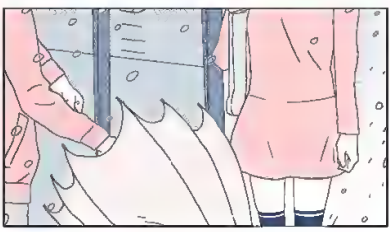
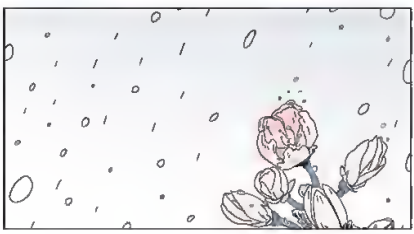
Before they open the umbrella, the cherry blossom which is about the bloom appears.

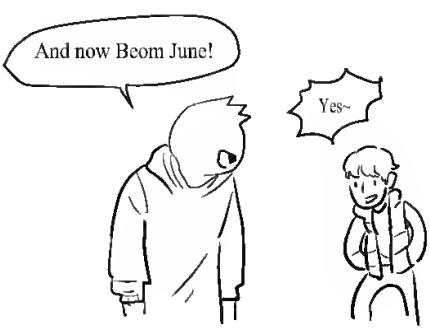
I drew this picture to let the music of Jang Beom June to take charge of everything from now on and just leave it like that





I will put more stories about how Falling in love immediately was made on my blog for 5 weeks from today.

You can enjoy it if you want to know more about how Falling in love immediately was created!



What was the most memorable thing about this project?

I couldn't draw the webtoon (on my own) so I trusted the author and let him handle it. Thank you for making a really good artwork. It was like playing music together. Things like that were nice about it.

Did you want something from the webtoon?

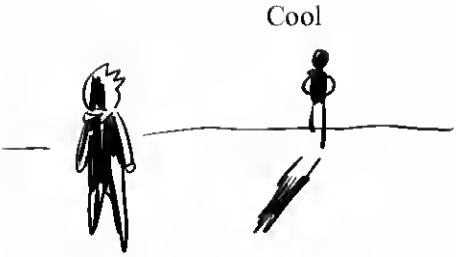
Some emotions that can't be told by words? I wanted show the emotions which you can't say with songs through the manhwa. I like the manhwa, so I wanted you to feel the emotions which you could feel through the manhwa.

Please say something to the readers for the last time!

Thank you for reading the webtoon every week and giving me a good review in the comments. Actually... I was worried because I was not doing much performance, and the fans were waiting for me. But it was good to give you something to enjoy your time while you were waiting...

I thank God for being able to give you a good time. I think I did my best.

I hope that you had fun while you were waiting for the album.



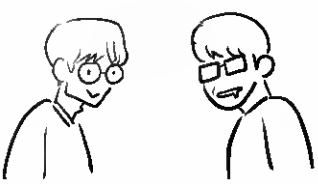
This project took a long time to complete and like I said earlier, it took a long time for the story to come out, but drawing work only lasted for 2 months and half. I really used a lot of the saved up time. I am really proud and happy as I am writing the afterword.

My best producer and beloved Seok Hyun who handled all the schedules so that I can work at a good pace. Also she worked as an overall producer and gave me coloring ideas and helped me with the coloring.

Jeong Hoe, helped me with correcting the rough sketches so I could feel more certain about it.

Hyun Soo, who worked with the background images when I had a hard time working for rough sketches and drawings. (Let's be together)

Hyuk Joon and Yong Woo helped me when I desperately needed help (Powerful people)!



Ju An, who helped Seung Goo from not going to Tongyeong

Jin Young who works with me at the studio and helped me while I was out of my mind!

And Beom June who was with me, together.

For the last time, thank you to the readers who read Falling in love immediately and fans of Beom June who waited for him

If you were not there, Falling in love immediately could never have happened

I was really happy every Friday.
Thank you with all my heart!

See you at the next manhwa! Pyong!

This manhwa is a brand webtoon of Jang Beom-June's second album.
